

Professional Liability

C&G's Professional Liability group is well placed to represent lawyers and law firms in a wide variety of issues relating to professional liability and alleged malpractice. Our attorneys have successfully defended clients against claims of professional negligence, fiduciary breach, fraud, third-party liability, and conflict of interest, among other claims. They have decades of experience litigating high-stakes, complex, and multiparty professional liability disputes. Our practice includes a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and experienced Chambers and The Legal 500-ranked litigators with excellent track records in civil and criminal trials and appeals. Our attorneys are active members of the legal community, and, in addition to co-chairing an ethics sub-committee of the American Bar Association, serve on the New York City Bar Association's Professional Discipline Committee and the New York State Bar Association's Committee on Professional Responsibility. They are active thought leaders, including chairing annual ethics panels for the Practising Law Institute, regularly presenting CLEs on legal ethics matters, and publishing articles on professional responsibility issues.

Litigation & Arbitration

Represented prominent law firm in complex nationwide malpractice class action.

Represented national law firm in tax malpractice claim arising from $219 million bond offering by the Virgin Islands government.

Represented law firm in malicious prosecution action brought by one of nation's largest companies and its founder.

Represented law firms in professional liability and third-party claims arising from the Adelphia bankruptcy, the Stanford Financial litigation, and other complex securities-related disputes.

Represented law firm in dispute arising from representation in prominent terrorism litigation.

Represented major law firm in legal malpractice litigation arising from a conflict of interest claim.

Represented law firm in obtaining dismissal of malpractice action relating to real estate transactions.

Represented two AmLaw law firms in legal malpractice actions relating to tax issues.

Represented two partners of a leading boutique law firm with respect to separate police investigations into allegations of client billing fraud.