

Cohen & Gresser Ranked as Leading Firm for Investigations

Cohen & Gresser has once again been ranked by Global Investigations Review (GIR) as one of the leading law firms in the world for cross-border investigations. The GIR 100 is an independent guide to the world's best firms for cross-border investigations. Based on submissions from law firms and extensive research, GIR selects the top 100 firms from around the world able to handle sophisticated government-led internal and cross-border investigations.

GIR recognized C&G's excellence in "stockpiling top talent from leading prosecution offices" in recent years and highlighted the firm's "high-profile" matters and "strong presence" internationally.

Global Investigations Review has previously nominated C&G for its Most Important Court Case of the Year award for securing the dismissal with prejudice of a high-profile FCPA case brought by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

About C&G's White Collar Defense & Regulation Group:

C&G's Chambers and The Legal 500-ranked White Collar Defense & Regulation group regularly represents clients in a wide variety of investigations, including market manipulation, securities fraud, insider trading, corruption/bribery, money laundering, OFAC, and FCPA investigations. Members of our cross-border team advise on major corporate internal investigations and handle proceedings before and in cooperation with a number of global regulatory bodies, including the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) and Serious Fraud Office (SFO) in the UK; the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and the Department of Justice (DOJ) in the U.S.; and the financial market authority (AMF), the Banking Authority (ACPR), and the financial prosecutor (PNF) in France.
