Second Circuit Affirms C&G Victory for Fidelity

C&G achieved a Second Circuit victory for our client, Fidelity Brokerage Services, in a contract dispute involving a transfer of assets from a family partnership's Fidelity brokerage account. The Second Circuit affirmed the District Court's grant of summary judgment to Fidelity and held that Fidelity was not liable to the partnership for allowing one of the partnership's members to transfer assets out of the partnership's Fidelity account.

The C&G team on appeal consisted of Daniel H Tabak, Sharon L Barbour, and Harvey B Silikovitz.
