

Anthony Michael is a lawyer awaiting admission to the Paris Bar and a member of Cohen & Gresser's Employment practice.

Anthony advises French and international clients across various sectors on all aspects of business life, providing advisory and litigation services for both individual and collective matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Anthony gained experience at several leading French and international law firms and multinational companies, including Baker McKenzie, Gide Loyrette Nouel, Publicis Groupe, and Bouygues Telecom, where he advised on a variety of contentious and non-contentious employment matters.

Anthony completed his legal training at the Ecole de Formation professionnelle du Barreau de Paris (EFB). He holds a Master 2 in Labor Law and Employment Relations (Droit et pratique des relations de travail - DPRT) and a Master 1 in Labor and Employment Law from Université Paris-Panthéon-Assas.

Anthony is fluent in French and Malagasy and is proficient in English and Spanish.

Anthony Michael

Juriste, Paris

+33 1 53 53 44 79

amichael@cohengresser.com

Practice Areas

Employment Law, Employment Law - France

Education

School of Bar Training (EFB), Paris (Professional Legal Training, 2026); Paris-Panthéon-Assas University (Paris II) (Master's in Labor Law and Practice, 2022; Master's in Labor Law, 2021; Bachelor's in Private Law, 2020)