Bonnie Roe is a partner at Cohen & Gresser and has over thirty years of experience as a corporate lawyer advising publicly and privately held companies and funds. Her practice focuses on securities law, capital markets, and mergers and acquisitions. Bonnie represents U.S. and internationally based companies, financial intermediaries, and investors in public and private offerings, including cross-border offerings and SPACs. She also regularly advises public companies and their boards of directors on public disclosure, SEC compliance matters, corporate governance, and executive compensation. She serves as counsel to companies and investment funds in early and later stage venture capital financing transactions and has significant experience in fund formation and investment.

Bonnie is the Chair of the American Bar Association's Subcommittee on Small Business Issuers and is the author of the chapter on securities law opinions in an annually updated treatise on legal opinions (M. John Sterba, Jr., editor, Legal Opinion Letters: A Comprehensive Guide to Opinion Letter Practice, 3d edition). She frequently speaks and writes on securities law and corporate governance. She has been named one of New York's Super Lawyers for securities & corporate finance each year since 2011.

Bonnie is a graduate of New York University School of Law, where she was the Managing Editor of the NYU Journal of International Law and Politics. Prior to joining the firm, she was a partner in the New York office of a Canadian firm, Davies Ward Phillips & Vineberg LLP. Bonnie is Co-Chair of the firm's Diversity and Inclusion Committee.
