

Irina Bratishkina is an associate in Cohen & Gresser's London office and a member of the firm's Corporate practice group.

Irina is a private equity and M&A lawyer with extensive experience advising private equity sponsors, sovereign wealth funds, international corporations, and private investors on complex cross-border transactions. Her practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructurings, exits, and strategic investments across a range of sectors, including technology, infrastructure, energy, and consumer goods.

Irina also regularly advises on cross-border regulatory, merger control, foreign direct investment, and economic sanctions matters, including transaction-related approvals and compliance considerations.

Before joining Cohen & Gresser, Irina was an associate at Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton in London, where she worked on cross-border mandates across the firm's international offices.

Irina received her Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) and Master of Laws (LL.M.), both with honors, from the National Research University Higher School of Economics (Moscow).

She speaks English and Russian.
