

Loïc Henriot is a partner in the firm's Paris office. His practice focuses on complex civil and commercial litigation, as well as white collar defense. He has advised on internal investigations and matters relating to fraud, insider trading, stock market manipulation, and money laundering, and has extensive trial experience across multiple jurisdictions.

The Legal 500 has recognized Loïc in its Stock Market Litigation and Commercial Litigation categories in France. The Guide has noted that he is recommended for 'sensitive cases' thanks to his ability to 'adjust to changes of pace and anticipate the evolution of a case, and to push clients to make bold moves when it is urgently needed.' It has further noted that Loïc is a 'remarkable technical colleague who knows how to combine psychology and strategy in complex situations. He immediately understands the issues, angles, and the strength and weaknesses of the case.' Loïc was recognized as a "Rising Star" in Forbes-LJA's list of the Top 40 lawyers in France advising the CAC 40 public companies on the Euronext. He has also been recognized by Leaders League's 2021-2022 guide in the "Highly Recommended" category for White Collar Crime and International & Internal Investigations in France.

Prior to joining the firm, Loïc founded Henriot Avocats, where he led internal investigations and advised on white collar defense matters. He previously practiced at Freshfields and at Davis Polk & Wardwell in the areas of M&A and Litigation in New York and Paris. He is fluent in French, English, and Italian.

Loïc Henriot
Partner, Paris

+33 1 53 53 45 03
lhenriot@cohengresser.com

Practice Areas

Litigation and Arbitration, Commercial Litigation, White Collar Defense and Regulation, Internal Investigations, International Trade, Criminal Defense, Regional Practices, Africa Practice

Education

Université de Jean Moulin (Lyon III) (DESS de Droit des Affaires et fiscalité 2001); Université de Jean Moulin (Lyon III) (Diplôme de Juriste Conseil en Entreprise, 2001)

Bar Admissions

Paris