

William E. Kalema
Associate, New York

+1 212 324 3523
wkalema@cohengresser.com

Practice Areas

Litigation and Arbitration, Commercial Litigation, Bankruptcy Litigation and Counseling, Insurance, Professional Liability, White Collar Defense and Regulation, Employment Law - U.S., U.S. Employment Investigations, Employment Law, Antitrust and Competition

Education

Yale Law School (J.D., 2015); Kings College, University of Cambridge (M.Phil., 2012); Northwestern University (B.A., with honors, 2010)

Bar Admissions

New York State

William Kalema's practice focuses on complex commercial litigation in a number of areas, including contracts, bankruptcy, and insurance disputes. He also represents companies and individuals in white collar investigations. Super Lawyers has named William a Rising Star for Business Litigation in New York every year since 2021. He has also been recognized by the Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch guide for white collar criminal defense in New York.

Prior to joining Cohen & Gresser, William was a litigation associate at Latham & Watkins LLP in New York. He previously worked as an analyst at Pan African Capital Group LLC in Washington, D.C.

William graduated from Yale Law School and served as Features Editor for the Yale Journal of International Law. As a Fulbright Scholar, he earned a Master of Philosophy in African Studies from Kings College, University of Cambridge. He received his Bachelor's Degree, Phi Beta Kappa, from Northwestern University.