Established in 2014, Cohen & Gresser's Paris office provides comprehensive legal services for our clients, including advising on corporate, employment, tax, IP & technology law, financial services, white collar defense, and litigation-related matters. Our Paris attorneys work closely with the lawyers in our other offices on cross-border transactions, investigations, and litigation, in order to provide superior service to French and international clients.

Cohen & Gresser has been recognized by Legal 500 for its work in France in the following practice areas: Compliance; Employment; M&A; Stock Market Litigation; Tax; and IT, Telecoms and the Internet. Legal 500's most recent commentary notes that C&G's Paris team offers an "excellent level of service" and "a very good and rare combination of high legal expertise and accurate business understanding."
